

MIDWEST SITE SELECTOR OFFICES

Site selection firms act as independent third party real estate experts that are paid by a client to help them find a new business location.

Developing and maintaining relationships with site selection firms is important to state and regional economic development marketing efforts.

ForwardWI.com

About half of the Fortune 500 companies utilize site selection firms when seeking out new corporate locations.

One of the best ways to increase visibility with site selection firms is to have a data-rich web site because most initial site searches are done via the Internet.
